

2010 Holstein Canada Convention

April 7th – 10th, 2010

Hôtel des Seigneurs
Saint-Hyacinthe, Québec

What is your vision of the breeder of tomorrow? Say it through photos.

We are looking for agricultural photos for a slide show that could be used during Holstein Canada's conference featuring Mrs. Pierrette Desrosiers, speaker at "The Future Breeder". This photo album will represent the pride of the profession for the future breeder; the passion, family life, exceeded expectations, work, honor, meaning of the profession, harmony, sometimes from generation to generation. Here are some suggested themes:

- The breeder and his family
- The breeder and his cows
- The breeder and technology
- The breeder at a show
- The breeder in the field, at the farm
- The breeder and recreation
- The breeder and his passions
- The breeder at the office (manager)
- In a nutshell, the breeder that reflects, that works, that has fun, that lives...
- In a nutshell, all other photos that to you, represent the future breeder

To participate, you must:

Have "The Future Breeder" theme in mind and submit one to three digital photographs (.jpg format between 500k and 1 mb) of which you are the author, to the following e-mail address:

Congresnational2010@holsteinquebec.com

- (Maximum of 3 per participant). Please quote "Contest" in the subject line of your message.
- Include the author's contact information in your e-mail.
- Must reside in Canada and be 18 years or older.

Terms:

- Photos must be received by February 15th, 2010.
- Photos submitted, as well as the names of their author(s) will be published without prior approval.
- If the photo contains the image of another person, the participant should have obtained authorization from this person (or the person having parental authority in the case of a minor) before sending the photo, where appropriate.

Do not hesitate to send this information to your acquaintances or to clients who may be interested in participating!

Conditions

1. The participant declares being the author of the photo and as such, acknowledges and accepts that by submitting the photo, surrenders the copyright and relinquishes all rights, including moral rights.
2. The person authorizes the event organizers and speaker to use, if required, his name and printed photo for other events, without any form of compensation.
3. The participant recognizes and consents that the photos submitted may be published within the site www.pierrettedesrosiers.com and to this effect will be accessible to the majority of the people visiting the site.
4. Sending pictures does not guarantee how they will be used.
